

MAASTRICHT NEUROECONOMICS TALKS

2018

13th April 2018

Maastricht University – Center of Neuroeconomics (MU-CEN)

School of Business and Economics, Maastricht University

SCHEDULE

9:00 – 09:20: Registration

9:20 – 09:30: Opening Address (Arno Riedl) (Aula)

9:30 – 10:30: Nathaniel Daw (Princeton University)

“Rational planning via prioritized experience replay”

10:30 – 10:50: Coffee Break (Foyer)

10:50 – 11:30: Alan Sanfey (Radboud University Nijmegen)

“Social motivations in choice: Insights from Decision Neuroscience”

11:30 – 12:10: Uma Karmarkar (UC San Diego)

“Browsing vs Buying: How evaluation mechanisms differ between appraisal and choice”

12:10 – 13:40: Poster Session & Lunch (Ad Fundum)

13:40 – 14:20: Carlos Alós-Ferrer (University of Zurich)

“Neural correlates of early conflict in economic decision making”

14:20 – 15:00: Christian Ruff (University of Zurich)

“Dazed and confused? Neural origins of behavioral variability in value-based choice”

15:00 – 15:20: Coffee Break (Foyer)

15:20 – 16:00: Hauke Heekeren (Free University Berlin)

“Affect and decision-making: from dual systems to multiple modulatory circuits”

16:00 – 16:40: Federico de Martino (Maastricht University)

“The impact of ultra-high field magnetic resonance imaging on cognitive and computational neuroimaging”

16:40 – 16:50 – Short break

16:50 – 17:50: Adele Diederich (Jacobs University)

“A dynamic stochastic framework for dual process models”

17:50 – 18:00: Closing

18:30: Social dinner

This event was made possible through co-funding of: