Some Travel Information

Maastricht is located in the south of the Netherlands in the heart of Europe. It is close to the borders with neighbouring countries Belgium (2km) and Germany (14km). As a result of its international location, Maastricht can be reached from several airports, some of them outside the Netherlands.

How to reach Maastricht by plane?

1. By plane to Brussels Airport (www.brusselsairport.be) and subsequent train service (approx. 2:00h) to Maastricht.
2. By plane to Amsterdam Schiphol Airport (www.schiphol.com) and subsequent train service (approx. 2:30–3:00h) to Maastricht.
3. By plane to Düsseldorf Airport (www.dus-int.de/dus\_en) and subsequent train* service (approx. 2:45–3:15h) to Maastricht.
4. By plane to Cologne-Bonn Airport (www.koeln-bonn-airport.de/index.php?lang=2) and subsequent train* service (approx. 3:00h) to Maastricht central station.
5. By plane to Maastricht-Aachen Airport (www.maa.nl) and subsequent taxi to Maastricht. The airport is very small. There are only a few connections to Maastricht-Aachen Airport.

Information on Schedules of Train Service

The website of Deutsche Bahn provides information on European train connections in several languages. The English entry page is: <https://www.bahn.com/en/view/index.shtml>. Another useful website is provided by Belgium Railway at www.b-rail.be/main/E/. The website of the Dutch Railway company is available at <http://www.ns.nl/en/travellers/home>

Shuttle Service

The companies Taxi Patrick and Lindetours (website unfortunately only in Dutch) offer shuttle services connecting Maastricht to the airports of Brussels, Amsterdam, Cologne, and Düsseldorf. Shuttle services have to be booked in advance, which you can do at the websites.

* If your connection passes through Aachen, you can leave the train there and board a public bus serving Aachen-Maastricht at the central station (only recommended if you speak German and/or if you tried it before.)
